

WHERE BELIEF WAS THE BEST POLICY.

The Tenant: "Them ceilings is that rotten, squire, that everything comes through. If you don't believe it, go up and see." [The squire did not go up.]

IN SOCIAL CIRCLES

Entertains Boys.
Mrs. Myrtle Lewis entertained class No. 11 of the Mechanicsburg Methodist Sunday school Saturday night from 7 to 9 o'clock at her home 231 Farley Place. The class is composed of a large number of boys, and an enjoyable evening was spent with music, games and refreshments. Mrs. J. T. Bennett and Miss Naola Barnett assisted Mrs. Lewis.

Out-of-Town Wedding of Interest.

The marriage of Miss Abbie Taylor, of Vicksburg, Ky., and Mr. Latham Conn, of Cincinnati, took place yesterday at the home of the bride in Vicksburg. The couple left on a northern bridal tour and will reside in Cincinnati.

The bride is an attractive and popular young woman, the niece of Mr. Young Taylor, of this city, the superintendent of the Paducah Dry Docks. Mr. Taylor left Saturday evening to attend the wedding.

Missionary Society Elects Officers.

The Junior Warden Missionary society of the Broadway Methodist church met on Saturday afternoon with Miss Adine Morton, 612 Broadway. Officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: President, Miss Kate White; vice president, Miss Luella Smith; treasurer, Mrs. J. H. Faust; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Samuel T. Hubbard; recording secretary, Miss Hannah Bonds. Four new members were added to the society.

Children's Hour at the Library.

All the children of the city are invited to the "Story Hour" next Saturday morning, March 6, at 10 o'clock. Mrs. Louis Riecke will have charge of the program, which be a delightful morning. The stories will be on St. Patrick's day.

Some charming and pertinent little book marks have just been received at the library and all children taking out a book on that day will receive one of the marks containing the following verses:

"The goops they wet their fingers
To turn the leaves of books,
And then they crease the corners
And think that no one looks.

They print the marks of dirty hands
Of lollipops and gum
On picture book and fairy book
As often as they come."

Mrs. Wells Guest of Musical Club in Owensboro.

Sunday's Owensboro Inquirer says: "The Saturday Musicals had a very interesting session yesterday morning at the Y. M. C. A. The attendance was very good and the club had as its guests Mrs. H. S. Wells, of Paducah, president of the Matinee Musicals of that city, and Miss Beulah Kirkpatrick, of Benton, Ill., who is the guest of Miss Bessie Crawford. The work of the day was the study of the concerto form. This was led by Mrs. Duncan, and in illustration, Mrs. LaRose, B. Hansen played DeBorja's Ninth concerto most delightfully, giving the three movements with exquisite expression and fine technique. Miss Olivia Stuart was as always the sympathetic finished accompanist. After the regular program Mrs. Wells gave an informal talk on musical club work, whose practicality and enthusiasm were most inspiring. This led to one of the most general discussions which the club has had for some time as to different plans for increasing the usefulness of the club to the community. Those present were: Mrs. H. S. Wells, Paducah, Ky.; Miss Beulah Kirkpatrick, Benton, Ill.; Mrs. W. A. Steel, Mrs. W. Q. Adams, Mrs. E. W. Smith, Mrs. LaRose Bolesey Hansen, Mrs. J. W. Richardson, Mrs. Virginia Duncan, Misses May Hays, Lillian Clarke, Olivia Stuart, Corinne Berry, Emma Harsh, Georgia Rushing, Susanna Cassatt, Cassie Thompson and Bessie Crawford."

Andrew Herbst.

Mr. Andrew Herbst, 85 years old, died Sunday morning at his home near the Champy bridge on the Mayfield road, of general debility. Mr. Herbst was one of the settlers of the St. John's neighborhood, having lived there for a period of 63 years. He was born and reared in Germany and came to this country when a young man. He had been a prosperous farmer all his life and up until seven years ago had been well and hearty. Mr. Herbst suffered a stroke of paralysis seven years ago and had not been able to do any active work since that time. He was a member of the country German Lutheran church. Mr. Herbst is survived by four daughters, Mrs. A. Nelson, Mrs. Margaret Ross, Mrs. Barbara Kettler and Miss Matilda Herbst, all of the county, and one son, Mr. Henry Herbst, of this city. The funeral was held this afternoon at 1 o'clock at the residence and at 2 o'clock at the German church. The burial was in the church cemetery.

William J. Holland.

Mr. William J. Holland, 62 years old, a resident of Grahamville, died yesterday afternoon from a general nervous breakdown. Mr. Holland lived at the home of Squire Herbert Anderson. He is survived by his three half-sisters: Mrs. James Holly, Mrs. James Wilkins and Mrs. Herbert Anderson, and one half-brother, Dr. S. Z. Holland. Mr. Holland was a member of the Baptist church. The funeral was held this afternoon at 1 o'clock and the burial was at the Palestine cemetery. The Rev. T. M. McGee, of Heath, officiated.

Capture Lexington Prisoner.

After a long drive into Graves county, Truant Officer Jack Nelson nabbed Dee Marshall, a lad who escaped from the reform school in Lexington February 1. Marshall was at the home of his father, J. D. Marshall, in Graves county, near Fancy Farm. Marshall was sentenced to the penitentiary for 10 years from Graves county on a charge of criminal assault. On account of the boy's age he was sent to the reform school and while in the hospital managed to escape.

THE DENIALS OF LENT

The time was, just a few years ago, when it was generally accepted that to deny the average American in Lent a daily meat course was deprivation indeed.

Then Faust Brand Spaghetti came to prominence. Now? Well, now it's different. The more often it is served, the more enthusiastic its partakers become in their declaration of independence from a daily meat diet.

Faust Brand Spaghetti is a pure, wholesome, American made product. Delicious, nutritious and delightfully significant in its possible combinations for any course from soup to dessert, what wonder that its devotees increase with each day and each meal?

It is sold in five or ten cent sealed packages by almost every grocer. Write for book of Faust Spaghetti recipes, free on request to

ARTIST HAS HYSTERIA.

Henry Huff Found Sobbing in New York Streets.

New York, March 1.—Henry Huff, the artist illustrator, whose pictures of fair women and stirring romantic scenes are familiar to all book and magazine readers, was found sitting on the pavement in front of the Hotel Martineau this afternoon, suffering from hysteria. Pedestrians who had seen Mr. Huff sobbing with head in his hands, and who had watched him as he drew from pocket sketches of several women, which he flung in the gutter, notified a policeman and asked him to take care of the man until stimulants from a nearby hotel failed to revive him. He was taken to the hospital in an ambulance. There he told his name and occupation and said he lived at the Stratton apartments.

WANT ADS.

DON'T TRY TO RUN AWAY from the influence of the want ad. No form of advertising in recent years has been more productive of definite results. Why? Because the public has come to realize the full value of time and money.

It used to be when one had anything to exchange, a whole day or perhaps weeks were spent hunting somebody who wanted to "swap." It used to be that you had to ask every one in your employ if they knew where you could find additional employees. And when you had a house, farm or lot to sell, the news was circulated by word of mouth. The old-fashioned method took time.

It's different now. With the great circulation of THE SUN the news of whatever you may want will reach one hundred times as many people in one day as you used to reach in two weeks. And it takes only ten minutes of your time to prepare the ad and a few cents for its insertion in the classified columns. Results? Yes, and quickly—the next day. A glance at the want ads. will show that others are already deriving much benefit from Want Ad. results. Cent a word.

Subscribers inserting want ads in The Sun will kindly remember that all such items are to be paid for when the ad is inserted, the rule applying to every one without exception.
